CDI Named to HRO Today Magazine's "Baker's Dozen" List of Top Managed Service Providers

Philadelphia (April 22, 2010) – CDI Corp. (NYSE:CDI) announced today that its CDI-Talent Management division has been named to HRO Today Magazine's "MSP Baker's Dozen" list of top Managed Service Program (MSP) providers.

HRO Today covers the latest industry trends in human resources outsourcing, services, shared services and operations. Their Baker's Dozen MSP list is based on feedback from over 60 customers, each rating MSP providers on the size of the programs they manage, the scope of their services and the quality of service provided.

"With this recognition, along with their recent appearance on our Enterprise Baker's Dozen list of Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) firms, CDI-Talent Management is proving to be a top provider of talent acquisition programs," said Elliot Clark, CEO of HRO Today Magazine. "Their ability to create strong customer relationships will allow them to remain a key competitor among other top tier firms. We expect to see much more from them in the near future."

"We are excited to be recognized by HRO Today as being a leading provider of Managed Staffing Services," said Dean Magliozzi, Vice President of CDI-Talent Management's Managed Services Group. "Our inclusion on the MSP Baker's Dozen list demonstrates that our clients recognize and appreciate our commitment to providing value-added talent managed services and long-term strategic partnerships."
